

<<Back

Making Your Home More Seasonal for Fall

(WTNH, Nov. 7, 2004) _ The vibrant colors of autumn outside can certainly inspire a change of seasonal décor inside. Designer Lisa Davenport of Lisa Davenport's Home Gallery in Glastonbury shows us how to complement the fall foliage within the interior of your own home.

I. So, what are the first steps in making your home more seasonal for the fall?

There are several easy, inexpensive and quick decorating trends for the fall season...I like to call them my Top 5 Fall Design Tips:

- Use trims and embellishments on walls, as well as accessories for quick decorating changes
- Use candles and lamp lighting to change evening room effect
- Create family walls with all of those framed favorite memories
- Rearrange furniture for a fresh new look
- Appeal to all senses:

Sight: use all of the above

Sound: Water fountains, Music

Taste: Cookies, Candy, great food help create an experience

TOUch: Wonderful fabrics, textured wallcoverings

Smell: Great scented candles, Apples and cinnamon simmering, open windows -fresh cut grass, Morning dew.

- The senses allow interior design to be an experience of good living!

II. Where else can people get some fall decorating inspiration?

- Get some inspiration from the Decorator Show Houses book in which I am featured. Great holiday gift idea too!
- Flip through fine interior design magazines, Home Magazine, Dwell, Veranda, Southern Accents, etc.

For more information: www.lisadavenport.com

Content © Copyright 2000 - 2004 WorldNow, WTNH, and Associated Press. All Rights Reserved.

This material may not be published, broadcast, rewritten, or redistributed.

For more information on this site, please read our Privacy Policy and Terms of Service.